Our story

Three polytunnels and a seed bed

Greenhaven started as a market stall selling seedlings from a back garden. The back garden became a field, then a glasshouse.

We grow most of what we sell. The rest comes from growers within a day of the nursery, and we visit them.

The nursery is open on weekends. Bring a coffee and ask the growers anything.

Most plants die of kindness. Water when the top two centimetres are dry, not on a schedule.
